It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband the small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

86—CALLE PIEDAD—86

Will be OPENED about the 10th JANUARY.

This Establishment is meant to supply a want long felt by Photographers in this country, viz., a place where they could get all their requisites of the Best Quality and at Moderate Prices. Hitherto they have had either to send to Europe for what they wanted at great expense and delay, through not being in the trade, besides having to get a far larger quantity at once than they needed or else they had to content themselves with what they could get here at some of the houses that occasionally got out a few sundries, but of inferior quality and at exorbitant prices.

THE NEW ESTABLISHMENT

(Dedicated exclusively to Photographic Goods) Will be conducted on the most liberal principles, and altogether in the English style. The stock, which has been selected personally by the Proprietor in Europe, will always be kept up to the standard, both as to quality and variety, thus ensuring to Customers a ready supply of whatever they may want, and at prices that will contrast favourably with those they have hitherto paid.

The supplying Complete Sets of Apparatus, at Low Prices, to Amateurs and Itinerant Photographers will be made a special branch; and Parties in the Country, or elsewhere, who have a little spare time, will find this a most instructive as well as remunerative amusement, at a very small outlay.

An early visit to the Warehouse is respectfully solicited, as the Stock is too extensive to give any details here.

Steamer America—Another male body found on coast near Rosario, B. Oriental. Linen initiated V. P. P. The deceased wore braces.

THE STATE OF THE CAMP.

An English diplomatist who was some years ago in the River Plate speaking of a certain Republic, said—It is nearly as bad as Mexico, and in 5 years will be even worse than Mexico.

We could wish to be able to proclaim with trumpet-tongue that it was an infamous slander on this fine country; but, alas!

In the worst pages of Mexican history there is nothing to equal the late massacre of 40 peaceful foreigners at Tandil.

Everybody remembers what a profound sensation was caused through the whole civilized world, two years ago, by the assassination of Messrs. Vyner, Herbert and Lloyd by the Greek brigands. So much so that it was proposed to send French and English troops to occupy Greece. But what will be the horror in every part of Christendom to hear that in the Province of Buenos Ayres, foreigners of various nationalities, men, women and children, have been massacred by Gauchos who, if report be true, were 3 months assembling for the purpose!

The history of the backwoods of North America is full of deadly incidents between settlers and Indians; the torch, scalping-knife and rifle have been accessories to the picture. But never have native Americans, even in the Know-Nothing movement or Ku-Klux Clan, made such a St. Bartholomew of foreigners as the Gauchos of Tandil. The atrocities of the Kaffirs and Australian bushmen have been thrown into the shade, and we find no parallel except in the Cawnpore massacre, or the fiendish barbarities of the Chinese at Tien-tsin.

Never during the long regime of the Spaniards, nor in all the painful history of civil wars, bloodshed and commotion, from 1816 down to the close of 1871, was there anyting of the kind.

And what makes it still more painful is, that this onslaught upon foreigners is not in some remote part of the interior, not among the wilds of the Gran Chaco, but in the enlightened Province of Buenos Ayres. For two years the fanatic Solares has been allowed to go about from Rosario to Baradero, thence to San Pedro, San Vicente, Azul, and finally Tandil, dealing out his nostrums to hundreds of Gauchos, and preaching the extermination of foreigners. It will be said the superior authorities knew nothing about it, but herein lies the evil. If Solares could assemble hundreds of Gauchos a year ago at San Vicente, and move about with a perfect menagerie of barbarians, living under tents and waggons, sometimes to the number of 500, and yet Governor Castro knew nothing of what was going on, then it is clear the state of the camp is not satisfactory.

If hundreds of armed men can assault a town in broad daylight, and a week elapses before Governor Castro receives a despatch to that effect, then it is out of place for the Government to approve of the alacrity and zeal of the local authorities.

If after the murder of 40 foreigners a second band of Gauchos is allowed to assemble, then foreigners have a right to be alarmed for their personal security.

If in view of all these circumstances there is still such difficulty in judicial forms that ultimately the whole band of assassins be spared (except one or two), then it is plain that Justice is very imperfectly administered or understood in Buenos Aires.

If unfortunately the impunity of crime, for which the country is becoming celebrated, lead to a repetition of such dreadful occurrences, it is very likely that our sheep-farmers will seek some other country where there is less "civil and religious liberty" of a republican character.

But it is not too late to face boldly the evils that menace our well-being, nay to improve the condition of the country and earn a good name before the world.

1st. Let the Tribunals make a clearance of the prisons, by shooting the worst murderers.

2nd. Send a Judge to Tandil to shoot all the assassins at present there.

3rd. Enforce the old system of 'passes', when a Gaucho wants to go from one partido to another.

4th. Abolish penal service on the frontier, and pay the unfortunate soldiers and National Guards instead of turning them adrift penniless.

5th. Establish a proper police-force all over the camp.

6th. Capital punishment in all aggravated cases of murder.

7th. Pay all the camp magistrates and officials liberally.

8th. Punish severely all cases of neglect in their official duties.

9th. Appoint 3 Inspectors (north, west and south) to visit each partido monthly, and publish their reports.

10th. Let the Justices of Peace hold office for life.

Some such measures as these are urgently called for, but if they be merely adopted like the Rural Code, to be laid aside in a few months, the task is not worth the trouble. Meantime it is not in the power of anyone to say what evils we are destined to experience from the present abandoned condition of the camp, unless potent remedies be at once applied.

Anything so rotten, so disgraceful, so lamentable, is not to be found in the present 19th. century, nor even in the Dark Ages of history.

Yet there is one consoling feature, that it is well this uprising of Gauchos against foreigners did not take place ten years ago, when we had no railways or telegraphs to meet promptly such an emergency, when a band of a thousand Gauchos might have marched on Buenos Ayres carrying death and desolation in their track.

The reminds us that but for the opposition of the Legislature of Buenos Ayres the Southern Railway would now be almost prolonged as far as Tandil, and the recent massacre might either have been averted or speedily avenged. But the old policy of throwing obstacles prevailed, and 40 miles of rails of the Tandil line were sold in England to Russian and Turkish contractors.

Let us push on railways and telegraphs as speedily as possible all over the Province; they are the best antidote to such poisonous influences as those of which we have recently had to deplore the effects. Governor Castro and his Ministers are too much wrapt up in the atmosphere of Government house, too deep in the short-comings of the Northern Railway or the University scandal, when their attention could be more usefully turned to the camp and its necessities. It is not the Governor's fault, but the defect of our system, that the Government knows as much of Azul, Dolores or Junin, as Lord Granville does of Burmah, Cochin-China, or the Navigators Islands.

Emilio Castro is an enlightened, well-meaning magistrate, and unless he has lost much of the activity he displayed when Chief of Police, he will turn over a new leaf in camp affairs lose no time in vain regrets, but gird himself heroically to the task before him, with the salutary motto—"It is never too late to mend.'

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

January 14th.

The elections on the 1st of this month for representatives to Congress have not disturbed the peace of the country. In Cordoba the minority, headed by the Velez family, managed to outflank the Government party, and prevented the elections taking place, which will have to be held over again, when the opposition fancy they will have gained an accession of votes. Mr. Alvarez, the Governor, a good-hearted, weak man, is anxious to conciliate, like his brother Governor in Entre Rios; but by some process of political aberration the people in this country won't admit impartiality or neutrality on the part of the Chief Magistrates; they must be partizans, or they are despised by all parties. The Minister of Government in Cordoba, Dr. del Barco, the same sanguinary individual who almost frightened the Governor of Santa Fe out of his three senses, is disgusted with Mr. Alvarez for his want of stamina, and has given up his portfolio. It is said that Dr. Garzon will succeed him.

In Catamarca it was feared that party spirit would break out into acts of violence. In that province there are two powerful parties very closely balanced—the Molinistas and the Navarristas. Mr. Molina is a well know, respectable, and wealthy merchant of Catamarca, who has always enjoyed a large influence in the province. General Navarro and his family are to Catamarca, on a more limited scale, what Urquiza was and the Taboadas are in Entre Rios and Santiago, the preponderating power in their petty states. Navarro has great influence in the camps, while the Molinistas are in the majority in the towns. The Governor, Mr. Galindez, is a Molinista, that party having gained the elections last year; but lately the Molinistas have obliged him to accept as Minister one of their party, Dr. Castro, and the consequence is that General Navarro elects the deputies to Congress—and they are certainly no shining ornament to the national representation. One of the Molina candidates was D. Pedro Agote; now Minister of the Buenos Ayres Government, and one of the best men the country can boast of. Instead of grasping at the opportunity of securing the return of a member who would have been a credit and an honor to the province, these foolish people fight, and squabble, and splutter, and kick up a general row, and for what purpose? To send two or three stupid young men, without experience, often without manners or education, to Congress, there to be the laughing stock or the tools of the clever Buenos Ayres deputation and the half-dozen eminent men that have—by accident, apparently been sent from other provinces. It is a melancholy spectacle to us, who desire to see the greet Interior of the Republic flourish as well as the Litoral; but, although it augers me at times to see the STANDARD so firm in its conviction that the Argentine Republic is Buenos Ayres, outside of which is the desert, still I cannot blame you. When I compare our miserable Provincial Governments, the complete absence of patriotism and public spirit, the pettifogging administrations, the absence of all that makes life agreeable—when I compare all this to the orderly and progressive Government of Buenos Ayres, the social activity reigning throughout the entire province, and the continued efforts in the right direction that are being made, I have to confess that you foreigners in Buenos Ayres cannot help placing us Provincianos out of the pale of civilization.

Well, if we are savages perhaps our children may be more fortunate. Buenos Ayres itself was not a very delectable spot 25 years ago, so I cannot endorse your contemporary the Times's foolish remark, when it blames the government for spending money on visionary schemes like the 'Tucuman Railway.' Admit that we are yet a benighted people, that even here in Santa Fé, with a seaport, and a large foreign population, our governments and authorities are about on a par with those of the Choctaw Indians; that Cordoba with her 200,000 inhabitants is as backward as a province in Spain under Philip II; that in Santiago the people still speak Quichua; that all the provinces are steeped in the most wretched state of superstition and ignorance; the fact stares us in the face that here we are, a population of a million of souls, fixed to the soil, and in one of the richest regions of the world. If we are ignorant, we must be instructed. If we are backward, we must be pushed or helped along. If our authorities are asses, their ears must be cropped. In fact, there is no alternative but to improve us, and consequently we must have railways, schools, banks, immigration, bridges, expositions, steam-boats, quays, &c., although we may have the intimate conviction that we have, up to the present time, done nothing to deserve them.

In Corrientes there has been a local revolution, Governor Justo has been deposed. The same thing will occur in Entre Rios, Governor Echague will be laid on the shelf, and it is probable that Mr. Reynaldo Villar, of Gualeguaychu, will be the happy individual whose destiny it will be to civilize Entre Rios. Your friend Mr. Go-And-Come, of Corrientes, has not played his cards well. The saviour of the country, the victor of Naembé, has unaccountably lost his well-earned prestige.

In all these electoral squabbles the hand of future candidates for the presidency is but too visible.

I think I can assure you that the intelligence of an invasion of Lopez Jordan is a 'canard,' a simple election ruse. Lopez is pretty well satisfied that 'Jordan has a long way to travel' if he thinks of taking up arms again.

In San Juan the official candidate has triumphed; but in this case the province will be well represented. Mr. Igarzabal is one of the most intelligent and laborious young men the Republic can boast of; and I prognosticate that after a little while in harness, he will make one of our best representatives. Belonging to one of the best families in the country, the poverty of his father obliged him to educate himself, and make his own way in the world. By energy and untiring perseverance he has, although still quite a young man, earned the position of representative in Congress of a province that is one of the few outside Buenos Ayres that has sent her best men to represent her in the council of the nation.

Mr. Igarzabal is the author of the most perfect and voluminous of the Provincial Reports sent to the Exposition, to which he was accredited as delegate for his province.

THE COOM POSH ON THE BRITISH HOSPITAL.

In this pamphlet then (the antispecialist's) we are favoured with a number of data regarding the origin and aim of the Hospital "which go to prove that it was founded by the British residents here with the view of" relieving the sufferings and sickness of the poorer classes of our countrymen, aided by a grant obtained from H. M. Government in virtue of an act of Parliament. "Unfortunately the clauses of the act of parliament, which immediately refer to the question in debate, are not quoted, and the omission is an oversight, for their insertion would afford us the means of estimating with some degree of exactitude the actual relations that exist between the British Government and our subscribers. We consider however, independent of the fact above mentioned, that too much stress is laid upon the right of the British Government to represent its authority; for it is quite consistent with the well-known liberal policy of the Home Government to believe that the enactments referred to, are not intended to trammel or stint the power of the supporters to govern and regulate the hospital in the manner best adapted to suit our local acquirements, but simply to reserve it self the faculty of preventing the grant being turned from its legitimate use.

The pamphlet proceedes to inform us that the financial department is "at present in a highly flourishing condition"; this is very satisfactory news indeed, for it may in some measure account for the excessive expenditure in 1870. Besides if the resources so steadily increase, and if the demands decrease in proportion, there must result an overflow of the funds. We cannot however comprehend, as matters actually stand, how charitable donations and subscriptions as heretofore obtained, and which have been liable to such fluctuations—how tonnage dues which are merely optional, —how "Hospital fees of a middle class of Patients—" which must necessarily be diminished if the Hospital is to regain its pristine purity, can constitute in the strict sense of the term "Income of a sound and Permanent character". The subscriptions and donations acording, to the Report of the Special committee amounted in 1869 to $206,509, whilst in 1870 they amounted only to $169,731 which shews there was a falling off of nearly 18 per cent. As the tonnage dues depend entirely on the number of ships that arrive, their number must be in a ratio to the prosperity of the country, and consequently in an inverse ratio to the amount of destitution; and this with the fact that the dues may be swallowed up by the marine donors as in 1870 are considerations worthy the attention of all who are interested in the welfare of the hospital. Again as the wards of the Hospital under the revised regime will be principally taken up by the legitimate representatives of British charity, there can not possibly be left much spare room for pay-patients. Mean while we doubt not but that a "sound and permanent income" may be obtained even in proportion to the demands made on the Hospital from the sources above mentioned. But let us not deceive ourselves. The funds raised by the method actually in vogue, should the Hospital be conducted on its original plan, stand on a very precarious footing. It is of the greatest importance then, whilst we are on the question of reform, so to bear in view the subject of in come, that nothing be wanting, when the dinner service is ready, and the guests are assembled. Having admitted that a more complete and efficient system of management might be advantageously introduced with a view "of securing a more systematic control over the institution which would tend to greater economy and consequently increased benefits" we are favoured with a set of „Revised Rules and Regulations", with the object, it is supposed, of remedying the defects complained of. Now these Rules and Regulations embody the general principles by which, as actual experience has amply proven, all such hospitals as ours should be conducted. The Rules are founded on the plan laid down by the philanthropic originators as set forth in their appeal to Government for assistance. The leading features therefore of the system proposed by the Antispecialists are those in force in all communities of the civilized world where true notions of charity are entertained, and where the real benefits of a hospital supported by public subscription are thoroughly understood. It contains besides a new feature not referred to by the Special Committee, we allude to out-door treatment."

Yet, not withstanding, the excellence of the Revised Rules and Regulations in General, there crop up occasionally details which are to say the least of them impracticable as well as defective. For example, the amount of yearly subscription proposed is out of all proportion to the number of patients it entitles the subscriber to recommend which manifest in a most unmistaken manner that the antispecialist did not thoroughly comprehend the principles wich unverlies this part of their system, or in other words, the equalization of the expenditure to the income and the self-supporting aim of the Hospital. Again, as the great purpose and object "of the Establishment is the providing medical care and attendance for the poor and distressed class of British Subjects", the bulk of the patients must be Free Patients, whose principal support must most naturally proceed from donations and Subscriptions. As the payment of the subscription confers „per se" a right on the subscriber, it is absolutely necessary that some proportion exist between the sum subscribed and the average cost of the number of patients thus entitled to admission. But it is clear that no such proportion exists between $5600 granted annually and the average expense of five ordinary patients during their requisite term of residence under treatment, even though the annual subscription be preceded by the payment of $5000.

The adoption of such a figure could only result in a cataclysm more chaotic than the present confusion and would be fraught with the most profound disgust, and give rise moreover to an endless series of complaints. It may be urged however that the "privilege" here conferred is not real, but nominal, intended as a bait to catch some stray fish that would come forward, and give the affair increased support, or is offered as a sop to Cerberus the supposed self satisfied supporter, and that the patrons and benefactors would never avail themselves of the privilege in question; but this is certainly a mistake for excessive fishing has made the fish shy and the above mentioned old dog is too cute to be so easily taken in. Should these gentlemen however think otherwise, they would soon find themselve so trammeled with such conditions and restrictions as would effectually put a stopper to the privilege we are speaking of.

But as this is merely begging the question, rather let us consider how few subscribers ever think of applying for the admission of a paciento—thanks to the system actually in vogue which has been admirably contrived to keep out the most deserving cases—and let us imagine how many they will be under the new regulations, for the antispecialists we are pleased to believe, do not intend the privilege to be a mere faree, because they have unwittingly defined the precise sum without sufficient consideration, and we need not detain the public by portraying the jealousy, rancour, disgust, and ruin to the institution that would inevitably follow from the scores of applications that would surely be made, and rejected, for, the moment the present obstacles were removed, and a right acquired, human nature and terrestrial philanthropy would of a certainty behave here, as they have done, and do in all parts of the world.

Meanwhile the definition given of what should constitute a "Free Patient does not agree with what may be understood by the phrase", "the poorer classes of our countrymen", on the contrary what are called Workhouses or Unions affiome would be the appropriate place for such absolute destitution as would entitle a patient to be admitted on the free list.

In the next place we are favoured with some details which might have been very properly left out, such as for example the naming of the house surgeon, which had better he left to the medical Board, and as the patients generally are supposed to be under the revised system, the scale of fees does not refer to Free Patients, and the question of the admission of seamen requires reconsideration.

In a word when the propositions promulgated by the antispecialists are carefully examined, impartial and neutral persons are immediately convinced that, with the exceptions of the few details above mentioned, which could very easily have been omitted without the slightest detriment to their completeness, there exists a very strong similarity, as one would naturally suppose, to the suggestions contained in the Special Committee's report; that is to say—the right of subscribers to recommend patients—the abolition of the actual restriction to the free admission of invalids—provision for the treatment of female patients—the election of a board of management—and last but not least a medical board.

The Pamphlet now under consideration, apart from its intrinsic merit, must, however, be examined from another point of view. Admitted the necessity of a public expression of opinion from those who opposed the "farming out scheme", we consider that the form and manner in which this expression of opinion was presented to the public was not in accordance with perfect good taste. This pamphlet was evidently intended to be the organ of an independent proposal which was to be brought forward before a general meeting convened for the express purpose of hearing and discussing the Report and scheme of the Special Committee, and without making the slighest inference to the latter. If this was not bad faith, it was bad taste to say the least, for the Antispecialists had no business to usurp the position of the Specialist's and ignore the existence of their report.

(To be concluded.)

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our special correspondent at Ranchos sends us the following—

"The gathering of the Gaucho clans at Ranchos, for purposes hostile to the foreigners of this district, now proves to have been exaggerated. Affairs have assumed so peaceable an aspect within the last twenty-four hours that Colonel Garmendia and his 100 men of the Provincial Battalion have been ordered to return to town."

The treaty just concluded between Brazil and Paraguay, the leading features of which we published yesterday morning, has attracted unusual attention in all circles. The intelligence seems to have been known to no one in Buenos Ayres but ourselves, and to have fallen with equal suddenness on the official and outside worlds. Nothing was spoken of yesterday but the treaty, which, it is considered, must greatly influence the future of South America. It rescues Paraguay from decadence, and when carried out must have an immense influence on the material future of this part of the continent.

We call attention to a concert announced for to-morrow evening at the Victoria Theatre. Several amateur societies will take part in the entertainment, amongst them the Royal Standard Club, which made such a favorable impression (particularly on the girls) during Carnival in 1870. The French musical club, "Les Enfants de Beranger," one of the best in town, also lends its assistance; and the well known Estrella and Progreso Societies. The programme is most attractive, and we recommend those who happen to be in town at this unfashionable season not to miss the musical fête prepared for them.

The official "post-mortem" examination on the exhumed bodies at the Chacarita has happily borne out our statement that yellow fever has not made its appearance in the city, as asserted by some of our colleagues. The chief suspicion attached to the cause of death of a man named Silva; it is now proved beyond doubt that malignant small pox was the cause of his death.

The intelligence from the South yesterday was more reassuring. Our telegram from Ranchos in the morning stated that everything was quiet along the Southern Railway. It is suspected that the Gauchos, finding the Government ready for them, have abandoned for the present any murderous intentions they may have entertained, and will probably hold one of their scratch-race meetings, "to make things pleasant," before they separate. The wide-spread discontent existing in the camp in reference to the frontier service has a good deal to say to the present movement; and, indeed, there is ample cause for the ill-used "paisanos" complaint on this head. Meanwhile, the Ranchos scare has somewhat superseded the Tandil affair in the public mind. What about the assassins said to be imprisoned down there? Has the judge commenced his work? If things were done as they ought to be, these miscreants would have already been a week in their unhallowed graves.

The second chapter of the Coom Posh on the British Hospital will be found in another column, and the conclusion shall appear to-morrow. Intense curiosity prevails as to the author, authoress, or authors of this clever paper. Some extravagant guesses have been made on the point, and the game of 'hide the handkerchief' is most amusing. We cannot cry 'hot' to any one as yet, but will merely remark that it is not often a peripatetic New Zealander is so well up in the local affairs of the cities he visits.

Revolvers are looking up in Carmelo, B.O. Our advices from that town state that there is a great wool business now going on at the Weston-Super-Mare of the Uruguay, and that Colts' persuaders are found most useful in bringing accounts to a satisfactory conclusion. Sellers, who obtained stiff prices some time ago for wool on contract, and see the purchasers faint-hearted in consequence of the fall in price, find a 'barker' a capital stimulant to honesty; while on the other hand a buyer occasionally induces a broker to admit that there is more burr and dirt in his arrobas than was bargained for, by subjecting him to the influence of a six shooter. Strange to say no sudden deaths have been announced as yet, and the health of the town is excellent, yet 'sharp's the word in Carmelo at present.

Mr. Bovill, son of Chief Justice Bovill, at present on a flying visit to this country, has presented the new Victoria College at Fray Bentos with two magnificent cricket sets, just come out from the best London makers.

Small pox continues very bad at Paysandu. There is a municipal edict compelling all happy men in the paterfamilias way to have their olive twigs vaccinated before they are a year old, under pain of having to open their pockets to give egress to a smart fine, yet the salutary enactment is totally disregarded by all, and the disease is rife amongst old and young.

The Argentine Government has given a gratuity of 3,000 paper dollars to a Mrs. Aparicio. We are unable to answer the numerous enquiries as to whether the lady in question is the wife of the rebel general in the Banda Oriental; we doubt it.

The news of the Paraguayan treaty was telegraphed to Montevideo to catch the Boyne. It is suspected that a shadow of the coming event was cast on London months ago, or the recently launched loan would never have floated.

The heat yesterday was rather oppressive; thermometer 88, barometer looking down, and promising for another 'burster' like that on Thursday last. There is an alarming depression in skates. A pair of Mr. Huntley's four-wheelers was offered yesterday at 95½ per cent. discount, but no buyers for cash; the seller could not understand a time bargain for the 31st July, or he might have done business at a considerable advance on the price for prompt.

We received yesterday, from the talented author, a copy of a "Biography of Viscount Rio Branco, entitled "Apontamentos paro a Historia' by Sr. Luiz D'Alvarenca Peixota, formerly Brazilian Secretary of Legation in this city. We shall review the work at the very first opportunity. Mr Peixoto has already greatly distinguished himself in the world of literature, and we look forward to a perusal of his latest work with much pleasure.

Advices from Colonia state that estancieros in that Department are in high spirits; they have plenty of money on hands having sold their wool and cattle at high prices. The only skeleton in their cupboard is the Contribucion Directa, which they are called on to stump up at once.

At the last meeting of the Peace Commissioners at the Mount there was, it is whispered, a terrific scrimmage; words ran up so high that blows were on the point of being used to bring them down again, when some casual interruption saved the situation, and the credit of the assemblage.

Two million letters, and a million and a-half of newspapers, passed through the Buenos Ayres Post-Office last year.

A Mutual Aid Society is about to be formed by some dilettanti in this city. Musicians, editors, painters, D.D.'s and D.L's will be admitted to the society, which will be called Pianopolis.

Eight hundred and fifty-five foreigners have taken up their residence in Santa Fe within the past year.

A false rumour of an intended strike amongst the Custom-House peons was spread on Monday. Yesterday morning a sergeant's guard of infantry was marched down to the Custom-House, but nothing unusual occurred.

Water throwing will be allowed at the Carnival in Montevideo, but those favoured classes, clergymen and soldiers, are declared free, and anyone caught sprinkling them will (very properly in the former case) in turn catch some 'peine forte et dure' not mentioned: the 'militaires,' we imagine, might be left to the tender mercies of the girls perched on balconies and house tops. It is forbidden to throw at your friends such complimentary missiles as dead cats, rotten eggs, potatoes, carrots, and other things used at election hustings, and in miniature by clown in Christmas pantomimes.

Gala doings are announced at San Fernando for Sunday next, to celebrate the anniversary of the Patron Saint of the town.

General Gelly and Obes went off hurriedly to Montevideo on Monday evening, it is supposed in connection with the peace negotiations.

Dr. Avellaneda, Minister of Worship, will leave for Cordoba on Sunday next, to close the Exhibition.

STANDARD Museum "redivivus!!!" We have to chronicle to-day a mild antiquarian victory, which modifies the tedium of perpetual editorial triumphs. We learned yesterday with placid and supreme satisfaction that the priceless collection of Paraguayan curiosities and art treasures which we sent to the Cordoba Exhibition has been awarded a silver medal by the Commissioners. While thanking the Commissioners, we must express an absence of any surprise at the result, and at the same time a sensation of disappointment that the Hand-Book has been overlooked. We publish in another column a list of the successful English competitors at the Exhibition. We observe that President Sarmiento, Dr. Avellaneda, and other distinguished personages have thrown in for prizes of medals and mentions of various values. The Latham family appeár to be the most successful exhibitors.

A Paris paper closes its account of the execution of the Communists Rossel, Ferre and Bourgeois with the following paragraph—

"The firing party then did their work. Rossel was shot dead. Bourgeois was only wounded, and a soldier had to come up and blow out his brains. Ferré spun round two or three times, and lay writhing on the ground; a soldier put him out of his misery. As soon as Ferré was dead, a strange thing occurred: two dogs rushed at the prostrate corpse, and had to be driven off."

It is said in Montevideo that the Finance Minister is again at issue with his colleagues, and contemplates resignation.

We publish in another column a translation into English of the words of the Argentine Anthem, by our friend Dr. White. We believe this is the first translation of the kind that has as yet appeared, and we must congratulate Dr. White on the way in which he has accomplished his task.

The latest news of the Oriental Government army is, that it is stuck in the mud somewhere near Paysandu, at the Pass of "Little St. Francis." It is rumored in Montevideo, Paysandu, and other places that President Sarmiento intends issuing a state paper, explaining the part this country has taken during the rebellion in the neighboring republic. His Excellency is not bound to explain, and the report has a lame-duck flavor.

We remind our readers that the meetings of the subscribers to the English and Scotch Churches take place to-day at the British Consulate, the former at 12, the latter at 2 o'clock.

A chasque arrived here yesterday from Chile, announcing a great robbery at Valparaiso, and that the criminal had left for the Plate. The Chilian Consul has adopted every measure to ensure his capture on arrival.

ON 'CHANGE.

Jan. 16, 1872.

Ounces	100
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
National Bonds	70½

The Bond market ruled much firmer to-day than yesterday. The cash sales during business hours amounted to 2,000 at 70 1/2, and for 31st January 20,000 at 70½, closing at 70½. In liquidation there were buyers for to-morrow at 70½; for the end of March 20,000 at 72. The abundance of money is now telling on the Bond market; almost all the brokers are offering money. The Provincial Bank now holds sixteen millions of patacons, the largest amount of specie ever held by that Bank since it commenced. There is very little demand for money at the Provincial Bank, and it is hinted as probable that in March the Bank will be compelled to reduce its rate of interest.

Nothing done in exchange to-day.

Argentine Bank shares rose one per cent to-day, 101 sold at that rate.

The Dutch schooner Jacob has been chartered to load in the Rio Negro for Patagones, bones and bone ash for orders at 45s.

The telegram from Montevideo to-day gave the following:—Paper, 35; bone dust, 40; extraordinary, 99. Coal cargo—Cardiff 9 pats. Large wool sales. Arrivals from Antwerp:—Sara, Barcelona, Fidela, Cadiz, Pachedo, Ny Darell, Bordeaux—Villa de Bordeaux. Vigo—Nueva Ignacio, Marseilles—Mary Bailly. 80,000 ar. wool 36½, 38, 40 and 41. Salted hides—something done at 74.

The Ariadne weighs anchor to-morrow at noon. She takes a full cargo for Antwerp.

In the wool markets to-day there was a brisk business; very little in either plaza, but at the south station a good deal. The following were the principal sales at North Plaza:—

2500 do do	78
1200 do do	90
1000 do do	89
1500 do do	75
2000 do do	82
5000 to 6000	78 to 85

Very little at either market. Plenty station. South market.

The sale of three large lots of wool, in all 30,000 arrobas, is reported at 3.80, 3.67 1/2, an 3.65, deliverable in the Barracas.

The Copernicus has brought a large cargo from Liverpool and Havre, but only three passengers.

Mr. Hugo Ledone has been appointed Russian Consul in Montevideo.

The telegrams from the South camps to-day were of a more peaceable character; and in the districts of Chascomus, Ranchos, Pilar, and Salado everything is quiet. Still there is a nervous feeling in almost every circle. The action of the Governor is much discussed; the 24 prisoners in Tandil who butchered the families in the South are still alive. The feeling is strong against the Government on this head. These villains should have been tried, sentenced, and executed last week. In the South market it was said this morning that there are numerous parties from the south in town, for the most part dealers, who have temporarily stopped the sending of goods to the camp until reliable information of the complete pacification of the southern district is received. Thus it will be seen that this unlooked-for "emeute" interferes with business, and well-informed parties state that the nucleus of all this disorder is the maltreated Guardia Nacional on the frontier. A meeting on the Bolsa was talked of yesterday, but as the news to-day were of a more pacific nature, no steps were taken in the matter.

The National treasury has just paid to Mr. Thomas Armstrong 2,525 pats. for two building lots in Rosario.

The publication of the Paraguayan treaty caused immense attention to-day; the bases of the treaty, as we gave them, are confirmed by competent parties; and the treaty as published may be regarded as concluded. It was said on 'Change that in Government circles nothing is yet known officially about this treaty.

A well known Montevidean barraquero arrived down to-day from Higueritas, reports a good deal of wool out there still, and constant disputes daily between the estancieros and wool buyers; the latter, having purchased at high rates, throw up the wool now on account of the flechilla. A Carmelo delivery of wool is a scene with revolvers. Messrs. Chichester and Hall, who bought early in the season, have received their wool and paid up everything. On the estancias thereabouts everything looks prosperous; sheep and cattle very fat and camps in splendid condition. There is no saladero at Higueritas and but one graseria, which is doing a large business. There are but two coastwise vessels loading there, both for Montevideo, and both with wool and hides.

Mr. Tay, the active American shipbroker, supplies the following highly important statistics respecting the trade between this country and the United States:—

	1867.	1868.	1869.	1870.	1871.
Dry hides.....	1,089,277	739,155	1,080,755	933,621	815,076
Salted do.....	36,281	36,323	59,435	18,336	3,003
Wool.....	11,700	3,170	3,447	5,230	15,091
Sheepskins..	1,228	2,742	12,339	20,862	2,965

The total Exports from the Plate to the States were as follows:

The bulk of the wool shipments under the head of 1871 was shipped within the last month 13,576 bales.

Vessels loading.

The National Government has purchased of Messrs J.C. Thompson & Co. two iron safes, for the sum of 910 pats.; also three safes for the Custom House of B. Ayres, for 259 pats.

Mr. David Pintos has received from Government 1521 patacons for surveys of the Cordoba and Tucuman Railway, Messrs. Fusoni and Maveroff have been paid 15,000 pats. for balance due for the Government telegraph line from Rosario to Cordoba: and Sr. Carranza has received 76,800 patacons for 200 miles of telegraph putting up for Government account.

The cost of the Jujuy intervention has just been paid by Government—2000 pats.

The National Treasury has paid to B. Ocampo for commissions on the expropriation of land, 3900 pats.

The sum of 302,570 pats. was paid last month to Messrs. Murrietta and Co. by the National Government for the amortization of the old Buenos loan in England.

The total cost to the Government for the Custom House peons for the month of December was 12,0 0 pats.

In our remarks yesterday on the proposed expropriation of the Northern Railway, by a typographical error the shares of that company were quoted at 5 premium, when they are 5o per cent. premium. In considering this question of the Northern Railway, it is necessary to bear in mind that for six years none of the shareholders received any dividend whatever. Now the guaranteed shareholders are paid up and deferred, and ordinary shareholders will, for the first time, receive a dividend this year. But four years ago the company was on its last legs; now its condition is highly satisfactory to all shareholders. This speaks volumes for the management of the road by Mr. Crabtree.

The last mails from England bring the following respecting the Central Argentine Railway:

The tremulous feeling that has of late sprung up in regard to the likelihood, or over the possibility, of the Argentine Republic, through the medium of its acknowleged Government, sanctioning the proposal to repudiate any part of the agreements established with this company was dissipated at the meeting on Thursday. The explanations of the Chairman and the Deputy-Chairman were at once simple and satisfactory. There is not the slightest ground on which to build either of the two objections to continuance of the guarantee. The question of domicile, although originally insisted on, had been waived in favour of a resident representative director, while the fact of certain of the stations not being yet completed is shown to be more the fault of the Government than of the company. Be that as it may, the stations will be completed before Congress can again assemble; and the proposal for repudiation, if revived, must be brought in again de novo, under circumstances which will have totally changed since the charge of noncompliance with the statutes was so far misrepresented or misunderstood as to permit the passage of the obnoxious measure through the Senate. General belief is satisfied that the project could not have obtained the sanction of the Lower House, even had it been brought up in that assembly prior to the adjournment: and popular conviction hesitates not to declare that the bill is in no degree likely to be revived. It should be distinctly understood in these discussions that not the slightest censure is attachable to the Ministers of the Republic in so far as the affair has been before the public, there having always been a reliance that the Government would not sanction the measure even in event of its being carried by both houses. The shareholders, however, have done well to act energetically and unitedly in the matter, not merely in so far as their own interests are concerned, but as tending to maintain "the prestige of the Argentine Government for good faith and honourable dealing".

SAVINGS BANK

] A N K : / U A A N D Co

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the the great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maná & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited: in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM

CONDITIONS:

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p. %) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor , it he w can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
